

Networking & Community

The Public Fundraising Regulatory Association (PFRA) membership isn't just about standards—it's about connecting with the people who make face-to-face fundraising thrive. Build relationships, share best practices, discuss sector challenges, and celebrate achievements with peers across Australia.

By participating in PFRA events and activities, your organisation gains access to sector insights, practical knowledge, and professional inspiration. Membership provides opportunities to learn from experienced fundraisers, exchange ideas, and collaborate on solutions that strengthen ethical fundraising. It's also about celebrating success, recognising outstanding contributions and long-term achievements in the sector.
